This is a reply to your letter of 22 July which forwarded a page from the appointment book of [redacted] that lists the names of seven people associated at one time with the Agency. Of the seven names listed, one continues to require protection. It has been excised in the copy being returned to you herewith. With the excision of that name, we have no objection to the release of the page. We also are returning your Form 1237.

of your agency, who recently visited the Eisenhower Library to conduct a classification review of agency materials in our holdings, suggested that I write to you.

Enclosed is a page from an appointment book of [Redacted] in the holdings of the Library. You will note that [Redacted] lists the names of a number of people associated at one time with your agency. None of the individuals appear on our lists of former agency personnel who retired in overt status. Would you please advise us as to whether we may release this page to researchers at the Library? Thank you.
